

Local Community Policy

Melissi Beach Hotel and Spa is committed to support and engage with local people, businesses, economy community and protect local culture, traditions and history.

Our guiding principles are:

- Ensure that our hotel does not limit in any way access of local community to essential services, facilities and resources.*
- Respect and promote the culture, traditions and intellectual property of local people.*
- Consult with local community on issues that may affect their lives and wellbeing. Ensure that their views are considered in the hotel's decision making.*
- Support the local community through monetary or in-kind donations that improve the lives of local people in need, assist local not governmental organisations, protect the environment or preserve local culture and traditions. Encourage our guests to assist in this effort*
- Purchase goods and services from local suppliers.*
- Promote Famagusta area and Cyprus to guests and invite them to explore while in Cyprus its rich history, people, culture, traditions, monuments, food and wine.*
- Respect the protection of historical, archaeological, religious sites and items. Be against any illegal sale of historical and archaeological property. Set and communicate rules for respecting and protecting them.*
- Guide guests on the appropriate rules and behaviour at religious places, archaeological sites, forests, and environmentally protected areas.*

The management sets objectives, targets and actions to achieve and measure the performance of this policy and regularly reviews their progress. In addition, the hotel's management system is used for planning, implementing, measuring and controlling the guiding principles.

General Manager